11 minute 2D animated show

For ages 7-13

Description

Everyone remembers their first retail job. Annoying coworkers, cranky bosses, and insufferable customers often leave a string of bad memories that we eventually point back on and laugh, groan, or both.

Now imagine if that first job dealt with magical creatures like vampires, zombies, satyrs, and other denizens of the monster world while trying to survive the horrors of retail work..

Monster Mall follows the zany misadventures of Natalia and her new (literally) monstrous co-workers as they attempt to survive their first job involving demonic cash registers, snooty porcupines wearing top hats, and other monstrous miscreants

The only thing that is for certain is that this is going to be one crazy ride!

Demographic

Natalia

Known as “Nattie” or “Nat” to her friends, Natalia is a very spoiled 17 year old girl who is used to getting what she wants, and is having to adjust to the concept of ‘work’ now. She took this job out of necessity because her father lost his own. Natalia greatly dislikes getting her hands dirty, being a super clean freak… which makes working with her manager Nigel all the worse.

The only thing I really had a problem with working here was the smell. It’s like sweaty boys mixed with skunk… and more skunk… with another topping of skunk.

--Natalia

Grace

A 16 year old frankenstein-like character who works in the same shop as Natalia. Air-headed with an immensely bubbly personality with a love of "everything awesome" she is so happy that she often falls to pieces… literally. She has an obsession with zombie guinea pigs and romance novels, and as such is constantly thinking that random boys are falling in love with her, particularly Ulfric.

Grace is always eager to help, and continuously annoys both Natalia and Arianna with her friendship.

"I like to think about a lot different things, like guinea pigs, or cheese, or… wait, what was I thinking about again?"

--Grace

Arianna

Whenever a sarcastic comment is made, you can make a sure bet that the 19 year old gothic Arianna is probably the one behind it. Stoic and snide, she is not sure what she wants to do with her life yet, but her parents want her to be an opera singer per tradition... even though she is tone deaf and makes werewolves howl whenever she attempts it.

She gets around in a little helicopter/wheelchair that has a nearly endless array of ‘gadgets’ such as grappling hooks and pop-out boom boxes that she enjoys causing chaos with, especially at Grace or Natalia’s expense.

“Job security is as simple as knowing that no one else would touch your job with a ten foot pole, especially when your coworkers can’t work their way out of a paper bag.”

--Arianna

Nigel and Ulfric

Ulfric

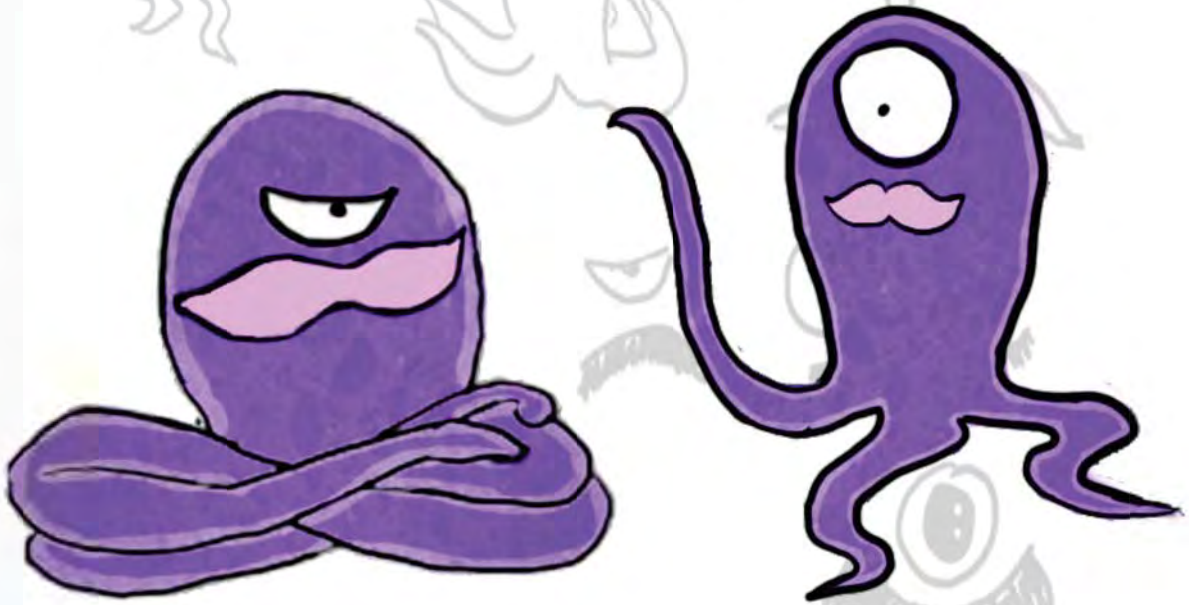

The stockboy employee, the 17 year old Ulfric is a young werewolf who is prone to static electrical charges and accidentally breaking things with his superhuman brute strength. Blunt, and perpetually oblivious, he usually means well but has trouble not coming across as the “teenage doofus” type of personality, further complicated by his ‘surfer’ accent.

Ulfric’s constant shedding always gets on Natalia’s nerves, as does the fact no one ever sees his eyes. Ever.

Nigel Benedict Slimebottom, esq, III:

Or just “Nigel” for short, is a slimy tentacled monster one large eye with a single large bulbous mustache. He is the soft spoken manic micro-managing manager of “Spooky Thrifts,” where the main trio works. Despite his best intentions, he gets his stinky slime on everything and makes squishy noises whenever he moves, much to Natalia’s chagrin.

The Regular Customers

Monster mall is an immensely diverse place, with anything and everything a potential client at the Monster Mall.

Episodes

Ep 1: Pilot. Nigel forces the gang to try to sell possessed merchandise. The merchandise will have none of it, and insults the customers.

Ep 2: Nigel seems to be hiding something, and Natalia is determined to figure it out.

Ep 3: Nigel makes a deal with the three witches of the Stinking Sludge vitamin shop to 'lend' his employees for a day: the main trio go on a Shakespearean-themed adventure akin to 'a midsummer night's dream' to gather ingredients.

Ep 4: Arianna bargains for a magical potion that she is told will give her the voice of an amazing singer. What it does instead is make her only able to talk in singing animal noises.

Ep 5: Ulfric gets fleas and must shave all his fur, and attempts several different magical 'cures' to get back to normal with diverse results…

Ep 6: A new shipment of completely useless products comes in to Spooky Thrifts. Natalia and gang attempt to figure out ways of selling it to a suspicious public.

Ep 7: Natalia loses her usual ride with her sister when she gets new work hours, and Grace offers her own car… her own talking smart-aleck car who never stops their running commentary.

Ep 8: Grace gets crushed on by a 'werejerk,' a handsome man by day, but an uncontrollable jerk at night, and she falls for one half of him.

Ep 9: The monster zoo comes to town and everyone is ecstatic to go. Natalia tries to get a selfie with the animals, however these creatures are far more dangerous than expected.

Ep 10: Natalia looks for a unique birthday gift for her dad, and ends up buying a haunted toaster that she must catch before it destroys her house.
